

ANNUAL REPORT FRIS

FY 2022-2023

STATEWIDE INITIATIVES:

- The rape crisis centers began services to incarcerated victims through a contract with the WV Division of Corrections and Rehabilitation.
- A comprehensive marketing campaign, It's On Us WV, was launched to provide standardized messaging and impact social norms around sexual violence prevention and intervention.
- A website repository of information and initiative, itsonuswv.org, debuted to engage the state in sexual violence prevention.

STATEWIDE RESOURCES:

- A fully revised Sexual Assault Services Training Academy (SASTA) was released with updates to all 99 modules in the 16 courses.
- Two videos were developed and disseminated to assist campuses in educating students about their rights under Title IX.
- Be The Boss of Your Body, a body safety curriculum for grades K-4, was finalized, trainings provided, and resources disseminated to over 47 schools in 25 counties.

ENHANCING ACCESS TO SANES:

- FRIS' online SANE adult course is pending national accreditation
- Through leadership of the Sexual Assault Forensic Examination (SAFE) Commission:
  - Worked with the legislature to increase funding (nearly triple) for forensic exams conducted
  - Secured designated state funds for forensic examiner trainings

COLLABORATION:

- Facilitated 9 statewide listservs with 471 participants
- Coordinated 57 training events reaching 2,490 attendees, including a 4-part human trafficking webinar series; 2-day prevention summit; annual symposium on sexual assault and stalking; 2-day rape crisis center directors' retreat; 2-day multidisciplinary summit, and a prevention retreat
- Tripled the number of trainers for the Sexual Health Education Project by coordinating two cohorts of train the trainer events
- Hosted monthly virtual Peer Power Lunches for advocates and Peer Power Hours for preventionists
- Certified 10 sexual assault victim advocates
